Footnotes

The London branch of the Playboy Club was opened in July 1966, and remained a major part of the Playboy brand until its closure in 1981.

This 'Bunny' costume was worn by the vendor, who worked as a 'Bunny Girl' at the London Playboy Club from 1967 - 1981.

The maroon colour of the costume was only used for those 'Bunnies' who worked in the 'Hunt Room' (so called because of the Managing Directors love of hunting), the main VIP area of the club.
